

Published on 1 January 2012

Thomas Caveng, Legal Translator / Marketing Director

t.caveng@soulier-avocats.com

Tel.: + 33 (0)4 72 82 20 80

Read this post online

Did you say “sexual harassment”?

In a case defended by André Soulier assisted by Stéphanie Yavordios and, for the proceedings before the Cour de Cassation (French Supreme Court) by Claire Waquet, the Constitutional Council is expected to issue in February a ruling on an application for a priority preliminary ruling on the issue of constitutionality.

The question to be answered is as follows: contrary to moral harassment which implies the repetition of actions, can sexual harassment, an offense punished by Article 223-33 of the French Criminal Code, result from a single expression of desire or seduction of a person, in the absence of any sexual assault, an offense punished by another Article of the French Criminal Code?

More information

Soulier Bunch is an independent full-service law firm that offers key players in the economic, industrial and financial world comprehensive legal services.

We advise and defend our French and foreign clients on any and all legal and tax issues that may arise in connection with their day-to-day operations, specific transactions and strategic decisions.

Our clients, whatever their size, nationality and business sector, benefit from customized services that are tailored to their specific needs.

For more information, please visit us at soulierbunch.com.

This material has been prepared for informational purposes only and is not intended to be, and should not be construed as, legal advice. The addressee is solely liable for any use of the information contained herein.