International Securities Law Handbook, 4th Edition

The fourth edition of the International Securities Law Handbook, a reference book dedicated to securities law and covering 39 jurisdictions throughout the world, is now available from the publisher, Kluwer Law International.

Since its first edition in 1995, this reference book, to which contributed many firms of the World Law Group has become an indispensable, practical guide for all legal professionals and actors in the economic and financial world who wish to increase their knowledge of stock market regulations and mechanisms.

Just like for the 3rd edition, Jean-Luc Soulier is co-editor of this Handbook; the other co-editor being Marcus Best, partner at the Australian firm Minter Ellison.
